Fall 2016 CETL Adjunct Learning Event

When: Saturday, August 6, 2016 - 8:00am until 12:15pm

Where: SPC Clearwater Campus, 2465 Drew St. Clearwater FL 33765 (ES Building)

Agenda

8:00 – 8:30am: Coffee/Light Breakfast, sign-in, & meet and greet in ES 104

8:30 – 8:35am: Welcome message from Heather Roberson, CETL

8:35-8:50am: TBA

9:00 – 9:50am: Workshop Session I

Topic	Facilitator	Room #	Description
CourseFit	I Tech Team	ES 203	Faculty are invited to drop in to our CourseFit session, where our Instructional Design & Development Team will be available for one-on-one help preparing your course for the new semester, practicing with specific MyCourses tools, and troubleshooting issues you have run into.
Title III	Misty Kemp	ES 220	ALTs serve as support materials which aid in out of class academic learning as well as non-academic skills in time management, test taking & financial literacy. Come and discuss how toolkits were developed to assist you, how to incorporate toolkits into course materials, & learn to develop your own toolkit lesson materials.
Faculty Professional Growth	CETL Team	ES 125
Disability Resources Q & A	Aimee Stubbs	ES 127	During this session, participants will be able to ask questions and gain information about Disability Resources. This will include student eligibility, services available, and the benefits to both student and instructor.

St. Petersburg College
Center of Excellence for Teaching and Learning
cetl@spcollege.edu

Fall 2016 CETL Adjunct Learning Event

10:00 – 10:50am: Workshop Session II

Topic	Facilitator	Room #	Description
CourseFit	I Tech Team	ES 203	Faculty are invited to drop in to our CourseFit session, where our Instructional Design & Development Team will be available for one-on-one help preparing your course for the new semester, practicing with specific MyCourses tools, and troubleshooting issues you have run into.
Title III	Misty Kemp	ES 220	ALTs serve as support materials which aid in out of class academic learning as well as non-academic skills in time management, test taking & financial literacy. Come and discuss how toolkits were developed to assist you, how to incorporate toolkits into course materials, & learn to develop your own toolkit lesson materials.
Academic Honesty Best Practices	CETL & Learning Resources	ES 127	Turnitin plagiarism checks; timed exams online; reporting cases of academic dishonesty & teachable moments.
Faculty Professional Growth	CETL Team	ES 125
Career Services Info Session	Rosaria Pipitone	ES 123	Gain knowledge about what career services are offered to students at SPC. This session will include a look at the new menu of services and how students are learning to understand the connection between their educational and career options.

St. Petersburg College
Center of Excellence for Teaching and Learning
cetl@spcollege.edu

Fall 2016 CETL Adjunct Learning Event

11:00 – 11:50am: Workshop Session III

Title	Facilitator	Room #	Description
CourseFit	I Tech Team	ES 203	Faculty are invited to drop in to our CourseFit session, where our Instructional Design & Development Team will be available for one-on-one help preparing your course for the new semester, practicing with specific MyCourses tools, and troubleshooting issues you have run into.
Title III	Misty Kemp	ES 220	ALTs serve as support materials which aid in out of class academic learning as well as non-academic skills in time management, test taking & financial literacy. Come and discuss how toolkits were developed to assist you, how to incorporate toolkits into course materials, & learn to develop your own toolkit lesson materials.
Student Success Strategies	Disability Resources & Learning Resources	ES 127	Student Support Resources: Disability Resources, Learning Resources, Advising/Retention
Career Services Info Session	Rosaria Pipitone	ES 123	Gain knowledge about what career services are offered to students at SPC. This session will include a look at the new menu of services and how students are learning to understand the connection between their educational and career options.

12:00 – 12:15pm: Short reflection, wrap up, and thank you in ES 104.